

Get Plug-in Ready--Now!

A regional, one-day workshop to help public and private entities prepare for the arrival of electric vehicles this fall.

September 20, 2010

Puget Sound Energy Auditorium
(335 110th Ave. NE)

9:00 am – 4:00 pm

Agenda

(Some items subject to change)

8:00 – 9:00

Registration

Check-out the new charging stations!

8:30 - Press event with local officials

9:00 - 10:00 Introductions and Overview of Issues

Overview of Workshop: Mike Grady, Chair PSNES/NOAA Green Team

Welcome: Kimberly Harris (PSE), Bellevue Mayor Don Davidson, King County Executive Dow Constantine and Secretary Gary Locke (invited)

Implications for Transportation, Economic Development and Climate Change:
Dennis McLerran (EPA Region 10 Administrator)

10:00-11:00 Government Programs to Catalyze the Market

State Programs: Dr. Gustavo Collantes (Washington Department of Commerce)

Regional Programs: Ron Posthuma (King County)

Local Programs: Leslie Stanton (Clean Cities Coalition) and Jill Simmons (Seattle Office of Sustainability)

11:00 – Noon – Charging stations and vehicles--what's ready NOW?

ECotality: Rich Feldman (Ecotality North America)

ChargeNW: James Billmaier (Charge Northwest)

Nissan: Russell Vare (Nissan)

Ford: Michael Tinskey (Ford)

Noon to 1:30 – Hosted Box Lunch - Program TBD

1:30-2:30 All you need to know about installing charging stations:

Moderator: Ben Farrow (PSE)

End User perspective: Dan Davids, (President of Plug-In America)

Installer perspective: TBD

Utility requirements: Ben Farrow (PSE) and Chris Heimgartner (Snohomish PUD)

Local government requirements: Ivan Miller (PSRC)

2:30 - 3:30 Policy and Public Outreach Considerations

Moderator: Mike Grady (PSNES/NOAA)

The Green Highway: Jeff Doyle (WSDOT) and Charlie Allcock (PGE)

Local perspective: Sheida Sahandy (Bellevue) and Fred Chun (Tacoma)

Electrification of Transportation—Regional, national and international implications:
Congressman Jay Inslee

3:30-4:00

Role of PSNES and industry: Mike Grady and Jan Greylorn (WTIA)

Wrap-up Q/A with distinguished Panel

Take home products: maps, model ordinances and permitting processes

Next steps: